Product Details

- 100% Air Safe
- Extremely Fast Evaporation with No Residue
- Non-Alcohol or Water Based

This Dust-Aid Lens Cleaner is the fastest evaporating cleaner on the market, despite not being alcohol based. It is perfect for cleaning camera sensors or optical assemblies without the risk of contaminating undesirable areas because it leaves no residue. This cleaner is safe for use on ITO and dichroic optics as well as standard coated and uncoated optics. This cleaner is 100% air shippable and is available in 15ml bottles.
